Three Attacks Were Made by a Band of Men in Ambush at Shenandoah, Pa.

EIGHTH REGIMENT CALLED TO ARMS

A Double Guard, Supplied With Ball Cartridges, Surrounds the Camp With Instructions to Shoot.

A Lithuanian Is Under Arrest in the Guard House and the Provost Marshal is on the Trail of Others.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 4.—The entire 8th regiment was called to arms during Saturday night as a result of three attacks made by a band of men in ambush who threw stones at the troops now in camp on the plateau outside of the town. These attacks are becoming so frequent that Brig. Gen. Goshen has decided to adopt stern measures to end them. Sunday night a double guard supplied with ball cartridges surrounded the camp and the sentries have been instructed that if Saturday night's stone throwing is repeated they must shoot to kill and investigate afterwards. One of the attacking party, a Lithuanian named William Stoppants, is under arrest and is confined in the guard tent, and the provost marshal is on the trail of others. It is not known how many were in the crowd, but the officers of the 8th regiment believe the number to have been more than a dozen.

The first attack, according to Col. Theodore F. Hoffman, was made at 10:45 o'clock Saturday night. Private Payne, of Company I, on sentry duty, saw a party of men on the Mahanoy City road which separated the camp of the 8th regiment from the 12th. He commanded the men to halt and called the corporals. One of the pickets captured Stoppants as he came running down the road. The others escaped.

The noise of the firing and the bugle call to arms stirred up the 12th regiment and the governor's troops to the cavalry which is located centrally to the 8th regiment. Col. Clement, of the 12th regiment, sent out detachments to investigate. The provost marshal, Capt. Ott, in command of the cavalry, the 8th regiment, Col. Hoffman said, was under arms and ready for action in three minutes. Another thorough investigation was made without result and then the command, after standing in formation for 20 minutes, was called to quarters and not again disturbed.

REMARKABLE ORDEAL.

The Rope Broke and George Robinson Was Hanged the Second Time.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 2.—At Wiso Court House in the presence of a thousand people George Robinson, colored, was hanged for the murder of another Negro.

On the first drop the rope broke, Robinson was brought up the steps on the outside of the scaffold to be hanged the second time, and had to wait until the sheriff went to a store to secure another rope. He was conscious throughout the whole of this remarkable ordeal and did not show the faintest sign of collapse.

DEATH BED CONFESSION.

An Iowa Man Owns Up to a Murder For Which Another is in Prison.

Denver, Col., Aug. 5.—On his death bed William Thompson, of Vilas, Raca county, has confessed that he killed his son Benjamin, aged 13, and that Zeb Nicholson, who was convicted of having murdered the boy and is serving a sentence of ten to twenty years in the penitentiary, was his accomplice. A petition for Nicholson's pardon was filed with the state board of pardons Monday.

One Thousandth Anniversary.

Berlin, Aug. 5.—The quinquicentennial of the city of Wurttemberg has celebrated the 1000th anniversary of its founding by a history picture representing the successive centuries.

Hot Winds in Kansas.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 4.—Intense heat prevailed in this part of the southwest Sunday. The temperature averaging near the 100 point with hot winds in parts of Kansas that caused more or less damage to crops.

MURDER HIS WIFE.

IN OUR NEIGHBORHOOD COUNTY OF BALLARD.

The authorities at Wickliffe have arrested one Thomas Edwards, white, accused of the brutal murder of his wife, near that place, Sunday night.

The woman's body was found lying across the I. C. track near Wickliffe. She had evidently been choked to death, as finger marks were plainly visible on her throat, and her head and face had been beaten and bruised. Edwards, who claims Nashville, Tenn., as his home, and the unfortunate woman had been traveling across West Kentucky as tramps. They had been seen quarreling violently and fighting on several occasions in this section.

Sunday night it was supposed, after a quarrel, that Edwards choked and beat his wife to death and afterwards placed the body on the rails to be mangled by an early train, thus hiding the awful crime. A track-walker found the body before the train had passed and the city authorities were quickly sent to Wickliffe. The alleged murderer was soon jailed. The evidence is regarded as strong against the accused, who will soon have to answer for the horrible deed. He declines to talk.

Edwards appears to be an illiterate vagabond.

CHIEF UP A TREE.

DOES NOT LIVE AND DOG.

There was quite an exciting time Sunday night in front of Hunt's drug store at Mayfield. While everything was quite and serene and a large crowd of men, sitting in front of the store, a big black dog came along the sidewalk and fell in a fit barking and snapping at everything in its reach. It was unnecessary to state there was a stampede among the crowd and Hunt's dog jumped up and showed his fangs. He bit the neck of a man named L. P. McNeill, who was sitting on a bench. The dog was then put on a leash and sent home. The dog was then put on a leash and sent home.

A HEAVYWEIGHT PREACHER.

Probably the most corpulent preacher in the state is Rev. Joel W. Watson, a Methodist minister residing at Summer Shade. He has weighed over 500 pounds, but at present he is somewhat reduced in flesh, and weighs only 455 pounds. He has charge of a circuit and is a very popular minister. His wife weighs less than 100 pounds, and the couple have refused many offers from museum managers.—Cor. Winchester Sun.

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 4.—There was a general disorder Sunday through the Camden Interstate Railway run by the result of the general strike of motormen and conductors which was to have taken effect Sunday. The result of the general strike of motormen and conductors which was to have taken effect Sunday.

Ashland, Ky., Aug. 5.—There is not a car running on the Camden Interstate railway system in this city. There is some excitement but no violence except shouts of "Silly" and an abundance of rotten eggs when attempts are made to start the cars.

The strikers have secured the engines and the cars which are being held off by order of committee. The Camden Interstate Railway, of the Camden Interstate Railway, of the Camden Interstate Railway.

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 5.—The day has been a quiet one with the strikers on the Camden Interstate railway. There has been no violence throughout the day notwithstanding the fact that the strikers are being operated regularly with non-union men.

Catlettsburg, Ky., Aug. 5.—Superintendent Cathright, of the Camden Railway, Monday night asked Gov. Beckham to send troops here at once as the property of the company was in danger of being destroyed.

Sheriff Haney also telegraphed the governor, saying that the civil authorities were unable to cope with the strikers and asked that state troops be sent here at once. The governor stated that he would take no action until he had sent a representative here to investigate.

The sheriff was busy Monday night so-arriving in deputies. Ironton, O., Aug. 5.—Monday's situation in the street railway strike was without incident on the Ironton division. The union men operating the cars on schedule time in accordance with an agreement reached at a conference concluded early Monday morning, but Monday night there was strong evidence of a renewal of the strike in sympathy with the men on the Hunt.

Late Monday evening all was quiet at Ashland, where no cars have been running since early Monday. The strikers are being operated regularly with non-union men. The strikers are being operated regularly with non-union men.

THE CHURCH OF THE FUTURE.

(By Herbert S. Bigelow.)

Every creed, in the beginning, is the statement of a vital truth. But to accept any creed as a finality is death. Where there is life, the spirit of revision there is life.

We can well afford to pay for a standing advertisement of our gratitude for any improvement of our creed. In my dream of the future church, I offer my creed, not as a substitute for yours, but as one which, combined with yours, might possibly give us both a broader vision and a more abundant life.

The church of the future, as it appears to me, will have no written creed. In form of government, it will be a pure democracy. No dogma will be allowed to do service for religion. Religion is love. Worship is useful and free work.

The church of the future must appeal to the social conscience. It is hideous that we should eat our bread in peace when our brothers starve.

The church of the future must assert man's right to heaven here. It must teach men to have faith in a Creator who has made things well; faith that the ills of humanity are due, not to his blunders, but to man's ignorance of natural law.

The church of the future must have faith in man; faith that he would rather do right than wrong; faith that if he were free, his own instincts would lead him to the good.

The church of the future must enlist men in the holy crusade for economic liberty, for the public good; leading them toward the republic that is to be, by the simple ways of justice and peace.

The church of the future must have faith in man; faith that he would rather do right than wrong; faith that if he were free, his own instincts would lead him to the good.

TALK OF A CANNING FACTORY.

We understand there is talk of locating a canning factory here, and we believe if the proper parties would take the matter up and present it to our citizens in a business manner they would face both of the project in a financial way. Talk, though, don't amount to a hill of beans in a dry season. It takes money to make the more go and it will require money and activity, otherwise than the tongue, to build a canning factory or anything else here or elsewhere. There's no reason on earth why an enterprise of this kind should not prove a success here.

There have been a number of new dwellings built in Hickman this year, more than any year for 20 years past, and still there are more commencing and more being arranged for not yet commenced. E. Case was up in the business portion attending to some business on Monday. As usual he had some ideas to communicate for the good of Hickman.

His latest is that the name of Hickman should be used in the corporate title of the N. C. & St. L. Ry., so that the signs on the cars and the documents of the company would read Nashville Chattanooga Hickman and St. Louis Ry.

The idea is a good one and would be of inestimable benefit to the city if accomplished. No doubt if there was a Commercial Club or kindred body to push the project the change in the corporate name of the Railway could be secured. The proposition is worthy the attention and consideration of our enterprising business men.

MURDERED IN TENNESSEE.

Fulton, Ky., Aug. 5.—C. B. Freeman, of Newbern, Tenn., has just arrived in this city en route to Limb, Tenn., where he hears that a man named Brooks has killed Mr. Freeman's son, Clinton, by striking him over the head with a club. The Freeman's are prominent people.

Our old friend, Capt. H. Buchanan, had a grand time at the reunion of the Orphan Brigade at Owensboro, receiving many honors of honor occasion, and the best of which was the little story Miss Galt before the organizing veterans.

Miss Galt is the Louisville school girl who refused to sing in "Marching Through Georgia" as a part of the school exercises and was suspended from school for the refusal. The old veterans adopted her as the "Child of the Brigade," because they wanted to emphasize their objection to Southern children being so taught.

TWO GREAT SCHOOLS.

The Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College are two of the greatest schools of their kind in the South. During the year just closed over one thousand boarding students matriculated and the general manager of the institution is now certain that the daily enrollment next year will reach twelve hundred students. The institutions are magnificently equipped and the work is thoroughly organized. Specialists are in charge of the various departments and the instruction is of high class and thorough. The Normal School operates the schools of Law, Music, Education, and the various branches of the Southern Normal School. The Bowling Green Business College does the finest work of any in the South in securing lucrative positions for its worthy graduates. Twenty of these graduates have been placed in one firm in Mississippi. Catalogue and Journal of the Southern Normal School, 2nd. Address H. A. CHERY, Bowling Green, Kentucky.
